Re: Sina Moayed

Dear Judge Rakoff,

I am a lawyer who has been a practitioner, teacher and civil servant for more than fifty years. I have been incarcerated under civil contempt in Brooklyn MDC where I met in unit K83 Mr. Sina Moayed.

He has distinguished himself here by organizing and leading several classes for fellow inmates for which certificates were issued to all of those completing the courses. He has also developed and organized the poetry group that brought forth exemplary creativity and enthusiasm.

Mr. Moayed in addition to being a very cultured person has conveyed to us his understanding and remorse for his professional missteps and misunderstandings of the law in an effort to do well in this country, his second home. He seems particularly well qualified to advise new entrants to the field of Architecture and Construction better guidance and advise than he received in working in those fields. This is an opportunity for Mr. Moayed to do good for society and for the community for new professionals to have their careers not go astray.

Therefore, I respectfully request that the fullest consideration be given to the earliest possible timing for Mr. Moayed's ability to convey to others what he has learned about right and wrong and to rejoin his family and the rest of our country..

Sincerely,

Aaron Etra

Inmate Work Assignment: FOOD/COMPANION

I wanted to come on here and say how much I appreciated fellow inmate Sinai Moyedi's, Soft Skills certification class. It was very educational and I learned a lot about interpersonal skills that I will be able to use within prison and out. Its valuable lessons in communicating everywhere and especially will do me well in the workplace enviroment. Sinai explained everything very well and would enjoy other classes with him as my instructor. Thank You and I am open to other lessons and programs as well as being a Tutor myself.
